

Internet Privacy & Security Statement of Entra Health Systems

The purpose of this Privacy & Security Statement is to summarize and disclose all information collecting and disseminating practices of Entra Health Systems ("Entra Health") concerning its web site, www.myglucohealth.net.

This Privacy Statement is effective as of August 1, 2008, and was last updated on August 1, 2008. However, Entra Health reserves the right to change this Privacy & Security Statement as necessary and without notice to users of this site. This Privacy & Security Statement is not intended to and does not imply any contractual or other legal rights or remedies to or from Entra Health, its affiliates, subsidiaries, assigns, agents or any other party.

Security Features

Secure connections are supported on the current server supporting the myglucohealth.net Web site. Members are urged to review the privacy/security statements of any links that members may access from this site, as such terms may be different and are not the legal responsibility of Entra Health, as more fully described in the disclaimer language that will be displayed for users prior to entering these links.

Collection of Personal Information

Entra Health will not be tracking personal data. The only data recorded will be the volume of visits as tracked by IP address and pages accessed. Further, Entra Health's server, used to support this site, does not place "cookies" on the hard drives of members.

Use of Data Collected from Input Forms

The current site does have the ability to input personal information onto data input forms. Data must be entered by member to verify identity and authority of user and that information will include, but is not limited to, member name, date of birth, demographic information, insurance information, emergency contact information, exercise and diet and medication related information.

Disclosure of Data

Entra Health will not sell, trade or disclose data to for any purpose other than Entra Health's operations.

Logging and Tracking

Entra Health will be collecting certain activity on the MyGlucoHealth Patient Analytics Portal, including, but not limited to, successful and failed log-in attempts as well as usage statistics for all functional components.

Collection of Personal Data From Children

Children under the age of 18 can access our site only when initiated by an adult parent or guardian . Entra Health will not knowingly collect or use any personal information from individuals under the age of eighteen without the consent of a parent or guardian, or provide any personally identifying information collected from children, regardless of its source, to any third party for any purpose.

If a visitor submits information to the web site through the registration process that indicates the visitor is a child, the child's parent or guardian will be alerted to the child's registration and will be provided instructions on how the parent or guardian can delete the child's registration, if so desired. Entra Health does not require a child to disclose more information than is reasonably necessary to participate in an activity.

Parental Access

A parent can contact our Privacy & Security Officer to access, change or delete the personal information that we have collected from his or her child by sending an email to info@myglucohealth.net. Please include the child's User Name, and the parent's email address so that we can better assist you with your inquiry or request.

Entra Health takes steps to verify the identity of anyone requesting information about a child and to ensure that the person is in fact the child's parent or legal guardian.

We may amend our privacy policy at any time. We will provide parent's notice by email of any material changes in the collection, use or disclosure practices to which you had previously agreed.

Privacy/Security Breaches

Entra Health is concerned about the privacy and security of this site and its members. Because the privacy and security of this site cannot be fully protected from breaches, Entra Health has established an address for members to report breaches and suspected breaches of the privacy and security of this site. Members should report any such breaches at info@myglucohealth.net.
